PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Before switching my career to IT, I have had 3 years professional experience in the accounting migration industry. My passion for technology and desire to learn motivated me to pursue a career in web development. During my time with Coder Academy, I was able to plan, design and implement multiple applications from scratch to final products in different stacks (Ruby on Rails, JavaScript and MERN stack). At my internship, I gained valuable commercial production experience using the latest Angular technology. As a developer, I look forward to combining my multi-disciplined domain knowledge and strong programming skills to support both businesses and clients to achieve their desired outcomes.
